

NGOs – PARTNERS IN CRISIS

SPEAKERS BIOGRAPHY:

Dave Scott has been involved in the fields of emergency management since 1993. Most of his experience has been in the field of Emergency Social Services as the Provincial ESS coordinator, from 1993 to 2001 and the ESS specialist with the Provincial Emergency Program from 2007 until the present. Dave also worked as the Business Continuity Manager for the Ministry of human Resources from 2001 to 2004 and as the Local Government Emergency Planning Officer with PEP from 2004 to 2006.

As part of his ESS responsibilities Dave has been fortunate to work with volunteers and staff from many non government agencies over the years helping to build relationships and develop plans to support community emergency preparedness.

In his spare time, Dave enjoys, reading, hiking gardening and doing home renovations.

SESSION ABSTRACT:

During this interactive session participants will be provided an overview of the history of Non Government Organizations engagement in emergency management in British Columbia and will be challenged to think of new ways to work with the NGOs and community based organizations to make BC communities safer.
